Revealing Our Hidden Wholeness: Beholding Gifts and Talents

Following a very spirited community conversation about our church vision, Shirl McIntyre shared her desire to help uncover our collective strengths and talents. She offered to create a survey of talents and desires, to highlight what we love about our community, and to guide us in growing more of it! She also offered to contact those who respond and she will be joined in that task by our new Volunteer Coordinator, Lynette Jokilehto.

Thank you for engaging in this survey- and in this spiritual community!

1. What (or who) brought you to Unity of the Seacoast?
2. What brings you back?
3. What programs or events do you like the best, and what programs would you like to see us create?
4. Please identify the top three areas of church activities to which you may be able to offer your talents or passion.
